NSW State premier Gladys Berejiklian resigned. Specifically the anti-corruption watchdog is investigating whether Gladys B showed conflict of interest when she awarded grants to several community organizations between 2012 and 2018.

Prime Minister Scott Morrison praised Gladys Breck lands “heroic qualities“ in responding to the coronavirus pandemic and called her a “dear friend“ after she resigned.

Australia is approaching 90% of 1st dose

Sky news Andrew Clennell points out as did Malcolm in the interview that booster shots are the focus now.

I also have some viewer comments on that video.

Prime Minister Scott Morrison is currently under pressure to revise the climate target.

Also in the interview Scott speaks about the Victoria police and how corrupt and violent they are. Well I don't have the date here I'll have to get it for you I believe it also is October 1. Acting senior sergeant Crystal Mitchell is facing an investigation by Victoria police is professional standards command after she quit the force over the states stringent COVID-19 directions.

Sergeant Mitchell resigned from Victoria police on Friday morning before the interview went live later that evening saying the consequences of speaking frankly to the public would result in her dismissal “I'm choosing to quit because I can't remedy in my soul anymore the way in which the organization I love to work for, is being used and the damage that it's causing to the reputation of Victoria police and the damage it is causing the community.

The New South Wales health minister last name hazard... States residents have an obligation to get vaccinated.
