PRAY FOR “BOLDNESS”

- “The Greek word is parresia. This involves more than confidence; it was a free flowing, unrestrained boldness. It can also mean “freedom of Speech.” Parresia carries nuances that are not easily brought over into English. The person who speaks with parresia will say everything that is on his mind with no restraint, flowing out of his heart with confidence. It involves be frank and honest, hiding nothing and speaking directly to the heart. Most often it is used for public speaking. It refers to speech that is not tailored to make everyone happy but to speak truth, in spite of what that may cost. It is the courage to speak truth into the ears of others. This was reserved for only the highest rank of Greek citizens, not people of other lands or slaves. The right to speak freely was an essential aspect of Athenian democracy. Although it is sometimes associated with negative speech, in this context parresia refers to an unrestrained boldness. There was a Greek idiom that said essentially, “if you tell me the truth no matter what that truth turns out to be, I will not punish you.” This was known as the Parresiastic Contract.” TPT Note on vs 31

- Boldness, parrhesia, Strong’s #3954: Outspokenness, unreserved utterance, freedom of speech with frankness, candor, cheerful courage, and the opposite of fear. Here it denotes a divine enablement that comes to ordinary and unprofessional people exhibiting spiritual power and authority. It also refers to a clear presentation of the gospel without being ambiguous or unintelligible. Parrhesia is not a human quality but a result of being filled with the Holy Spirit.

PRINCIPLES & PRACTICE TO TAKE AWAY

1. As the Ekklesia of Christ we are called to be Christ Followers. (He said, “Follow ME”)
2. The Church system has failed miserably at Following Christ in healing the sick
3. The Church system has promoted and fostered believer’s dependency upon the secular medical profession, and thus has successfully eradicated the supernatural.
4. As the Ekklesia of Christ we must be laying hands on people and praying for the sick.
5. As the Ekklesia of Christ we are called to live in genuine community with one another.
6. The Church system has relegated our involvement in community to two hours of programed, orchestrated, and controlled interaction on Sunday mornings.
7. As the Ekklesia we must be building Communities of Christ Followers everywhere.
