

The Pied Piper of Now

1. Slowly darkness and lies enter into a country, or the world, like the slow boiling of the frog... he doesn't even realize it. Step by step, piece by piece, the blanket of lies is woven to change the thinking of the world.

2. Like rats eating away even the cardboard and paper that wraps the food, slowly and surely eating away at the foundations of society, the truth and reality that had once been; but now it is gone.

3. When a new Pharaoh arose in Egypt, the friendly king gone, the air changed and the Israelites became absolute slaves. Many years were they slaves and finally it got so bad, they came to the precipice and cried out to God for deliverance.

4. Did the Lord deliver the people right away? Did he send a deliverer to stop the evil king soon? No; the man he chose, Moses, had to flee into the wilderness and there lived for 40 years until that fateful day of destiny when the voice of the Lord called him up to the mountain.

5. Moses said, ' Lord Whom shall I say you are, what is your name'? And God said, tell them My name is... I AM. The I AM has sent you. And Moses was empowered by meeting God face to face and went down the mountain on to Egypt to deal with Pharaoh and deliver the children of Israel.

6. Let My People Go, saith the Lord, cried Moses to Pharaoh... but Pharaoh would not. In fact he made the suffering harder, as God hardened his heart. Why? 'I will harden pharaoh's heart so that I will be sanctified in the eyes of Israel and the Egyptians, and they will know that I have delivered them.'

7. The first major Pied Piper, Moses, was thought of as a bit crazy or a deceiver at first by many, but as he played the music of his 'pipe', as he raised his staff and pronounced judgments on Egypt, God smashed the country until Pharaoh said, 'uncle', and let the people go.

8. Jesus of Mary and Joseph was born in an obscure town in a stable and then had to flee into Egypt to stay alive, to escape king Herod's decree to kill all babies in Bethlehem. A normal family, heavily guarded by the warrior angels of Heaven to care and prepare the Son of God for his future.

9. Then at the death of Herod, they were able to go back to their home in Nazareth where Jesus grew up. Not much is said of those years in the Bible, but we know the Father was talking to Him, preparing Him for what he was about to do....

To Unleash a Torrent of Spiritual Holocaust on the people of Israel and on the world, defying the forces of hell.

10. At 30 Jesus began his revolution as He played his 'pipe' of wonder-full words that reached into the hearts and brought down the kingdom of Heaven into the heart, leading thousands to a new land, a spiritual home...as he trained 12 other pipers who would carry on His kingdom.

11. This Pied Piper of truth was loved by the common people and hated by the powers that ruled, the religious system of the day, whom Jesus called... the Jews. (leaders of Israel) They hated Him for He brought spiritual revolution, exposing their dry religion of laws that could never save you.

12. Jesus piped His music all over the land, doing hundreds of miracles every where He went, until the religionists could take it no more and had Him killed. Jesus Christ was the main piper of truth that led thousands away from spiritual death, to find the key to heaven, which resulted in billions finding eternal life for the last 2000 years.

The Pied Piper of Hamelin

A plague of Egypt tormented the city

13. Have you heard the story of the Pied Piper of Hamelin? Well you will never hear it like this.

Although it is a children's story, it could have been a true history that actually happened, but not quite the way legend and story tellers tell it.

14. Yet even the seeping in of lies that comes to nations, the tyranny that came to Egypt with Pharaoh, so have the lies seeped steadily into this world of Now, brainwashing the people so much that they think black is white, white is black, lies are truth, truth is a lie, bad is good and good is bad.

15. That's how stupid many people are and why are they so dumb to allow this to happen? Because they loved the things that the lies brought to them. They were self satisfied, weren't vigilant, and let 'the came's nose' of evil into their tent, and were taken over.

16. The people of Hamelin did the same. They started to become more wealthy but paid a price for that wealth... they sacrificed children to appease the gods, which are actually demons and Satan himself, for they loved the things of the world, fame, power, wealth more than truth and goodness.

17. God was faithful to warn them. He sent a plague of rats... first one, then three, then nine, and soon they were every where, all the time. The rats ate everything they could find.

18. They hid in the sewer, they hid in the pipes, they hid in the kitchens and ate all that was ripe.

They got in the closets, they hid in 'the head';

They got into anything, even the beds.
Rats were everywhere.

19. Finally the people had enough. They were going insane with those ugly creatures popping up here, there and anywhere... so they went to see the mayor and his council.

20. They said; we pay you to take care of the town's business but you have done nothing to stop the rats.. and if you don't do something soon, you will be out of a job, all of you.

21. So the mayor of Hamelin and his staff held a meeting on what they could do. Let's poison them said one, let's beat them said another, let's take all food out of houses said another...

but nothing was very practical.

22. For days the mayor and council tried everything they could but to no avail. Finally one day during their meeting, there was a knock on the door..' Who is that' said the mayor.

23. The door slowly opened, and in came the strangest guy you have ever seen, dressed in weird colors with a funny hat, like a circus clown he'd been. Dangling from his belt was a peculiar pipe for music, that he was just itching to play.

24. 'Who are you'? Asked the Mayor.. and what do you want. We are in a meeting, please go!...

No; said the strange man with a strong gleam in his eye; I have something for you.

25. "What do you have for us", asked the council, "You don't look like you have anything". Get out of here or we'll put you in our jail filled with rats.

26. It is for rats that I came, you see. I can get rid of them all, but not for free. I know the tune to play, and the rats will follow me all away. "You are crazy as a loon said they"; yet just in case they were wrong, they asked, "How can you get rid of all these rats"?

27. I will play the tune they love, they will follow wherever I quiver. They will follow me away from your city, and will drown in the river, said the Piper. What will you give me if I am able to deliver... you from your plague of Egypt?

28. If you are able to do this feat, to get rid of all the rats that our food do eat, We shall give you this bag of gold, worth much more than if we sold, all the homes of this council.

29. 'DONE'! Said the piper and I shall be back to collect my fee... when your town will be set free of all the vermin that you can see... they will be gone and you shall see them no more.

30. The next morning all could hear, the most pleasant of tunes that tickled their ears. Dogs, cats, horses and even the geese, loved the tones near the river Weese. (river in Hamelin Germany)

31. But the flowing tones from the stranger's pipe was especially loved by the rats. They were hypnotized by the musical breath. They could do nothing but follow, and follow him they did to the river, to their death.

32. The people watched with joy and glee as the piper played his fantastic melody, playing his pipe with such authority, that all the rats followed into the raging river.

33. When the spell was finished and done, not one single rat was left in town. The people sang with joy and wonderful verse, as they had been freed from that awful curse.

34. But then they saw the piper return,
With a fierce look as if his eyes burned;
To the mayor and council he walked so bold,
To collect his fee of the bag of gold.

35. The mayor told the strange piper man, how do we know it was you who did this deed, we don't know who you are, where you came from... we will not pay your fee.

36. The piper with a strong voice, cried out for all to hear...if you do not pay my fee, I WILL TAKE YOUR inheritance away with me... and with that he left.

37. The council joked about it. Inheritance? We have no heirs, we have no great inheritance... If he returns, we will lock him up forever or send him with his rats to the river.

38. Hamelin was a strange town indeed, on Sunday mornings when the adults went to church, eerily, most of the children stayed home; they were not allowed to go.

As... once a month or so, some child was said to have drowned in the river by accident, or had been hit by a carriage or was very sick and died...

39. It was Hamelin's dirty secret... a payment to Satan, for the wealth they had been given...a child a month was sacrificed, a horror of former generations that sacrificed their own children for money.

40. The next Sunday while the adults were at church, the piper came walking into town. He began to play a most beautiful tone that thrilled the hearts of children alone.

41. The adults could not even hear it, and the piper's promise was kept; 'I will have your inheritance... your children...

42. The music played so lovingly, the children danced so happily, and followed the piper out of town, into the hills without a frown, without a care, for they had found, someone who actually cared.

43. The piper saved them from an awful fate, by taking them far away... from Hamelin... that horrible town of wicked kind who prefer money than to love their own... children.

It's all for the children

44. It's shocking at what is happening to children. In America alone 800,000 were disappearing each year. How could it be that many? Couldn't the FBI find them, some of them?

They didn't want to find them, for they were sold as slaves.

45. But Jesus has sent a new Pied Piper to town... us. We are playing the 'music of truth' exposing the evil people who are doing this. There is judgment coming for those who hurt kids, stealing them to make money, luring them away with the evil music of devils.

46. We are the pied pipers that are taking the rats to the river to drown, and then free the children from the hands of the wicked... the Satan worshipers who sacrifice children for their greed.

47. And parents and teachers who allow the children to be 'eaten' by the rats of perversions, lies and insanity, will LOSE their inheritance and be sent 'to the river'. God will take a collection.

48. We play 'the music of Jesus' to bring the children of the world to a heavenly place where all their tears and heartaches will be healed, giving them an eternal home, the kingdom of Heaven that will take over this world in its darkest hour.

49. We will drive out the 'rats', and free the world from the curse and plague of 'Egypt', 'Sodom' and hell, as we return with the King of Heaven to run this world with a loving iron hand.
