

Chessboard of The End- God's Tactics

(note: although these prophecies were originally for missionaries who daily poured out truth in the streets and to every person, it's encouraging to see how the Lord is using us to reach the world, and train fighters. These prophecies will really encourage you as you see the Lord's hand preparing you for this time.

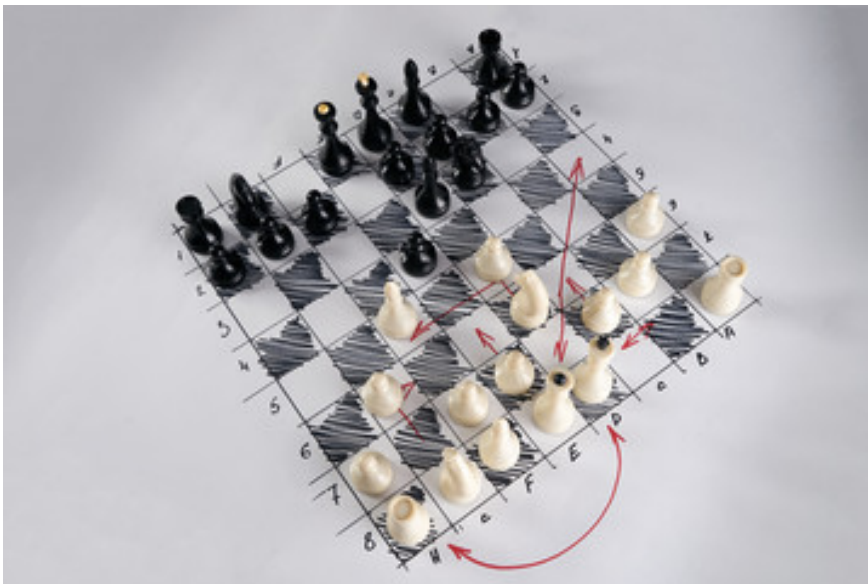

(prophecies received April 2001 and April 2023)

1. The time has now come; it's not a time of looking forward to the future thinking you have time, nor a time of waiting, wondering when the events of the end will come. For you have entered the days of the final fulfillments of Bible prophecy even as you see them appear in signs all around you.

2. The Enemy is arming his willing slaves with 'high tech weapons' of demonic wizardry and contriving against Me and My people and has begun to make his move. He is even openly broadcasting his devices arrogantly, for his pawns have amassed great wealth and power over many nations.

3. As he makes his moves on the chessboard , I have seen the end of it all, and I know how to place MY PIECES, MY PLAYERS to bring about My desired effect. I have PUT MY WILL INTO THE HEART and SOULS of MY players, My truth warriors, and they have advanced upon the stage at MY CALL, MY DOING, MY PUSH... and Those who proclaim My truth will have My anointing.

4. The Enemy, YOUR enemies both in spirit and in flesh have been working for decades with the goal of creating an interlinked system, integrated into one controlling power. First economically and then in every other area. That's always been his goal and he is moving his pieces to make it a reality. The leaders on the board of individual countries are just pawns in his game that can be replaced at a moment so that only those who comply with HIS agenda will stand.

5. So you see these pawns line up trying to embrace his agenda in hopes they will be kept and receive his power, vying for the most important positions within his world government.

This has put a bit of wonder in some of your minds of how you will survive in those days when his system is locked in, but You do not know My power nor the things that I will do to provide for My own, even keeping some nations free from his control at least for awhile.

6. This is a very critical time in history for it will decide the eternities of each person, each soul. I have not called you to hide but to take center stage to broadcast My truth and expose of his cabal, his pawns and their agenda. For the people need a strong voice that dares to defy the enemy so that they know there is hope in Me, to flee to Me... for there is no other safety but in Me.

7. For those who do not have My protection are easily drawn down into his deceit, his lies and venom, as even those of the churches have been subdued by their lack of receiving My truth or abiding in Me. Therefore have I inspired you to take center stage and proclaim My words to all so that they can discern what is of Me and what is of this world or of Satan.

8. Proclaim My message and truth on TV, Radio, in print, on line using the media, social media and person to person. For only then will those who have been captive so long, so deep in the system of lies and cover up, be able to hear the hope that is yet alive on earth; only with proclaiming it will those hidden in the rocks and caves of the world system, hear that there are people brave enough to stand up against the dragon and beast.

9. For many have given up in despair saying there is no hope, who can make war with the beast! But now through My children who stand out with a voice to the world will they have a spark of hope and glimmer of truth, to seek out truth and to find you. They will say to you, feed us of your truth for we have not found such encouragement and salvation from the torments of the enemy.

10. Therefore my obedient children of the End, blaze My message abroad. Ring out the bell of freedom on the housetops so that it echoes through the mountains, across valleys and around the world. For then the sheep will begin bleating louder and you will find them, heal them and save them from the enemy.

And because the fighters were willing to do this, you have put the enemy in a corner, putting his forces in disarray and in panic, for you expose his very plans and moves... and because of his confusion and your strong voices he will lose many, and lose much ground.

11. Worry not for how you will eat and be clothed or operate... for I have set those with wealth inside the very system who will be activated to help you because your voice is true and of Me. So seek them out by giving the truth so that they will be activated. My Moles are called upon by Me to supply the doors for you to walk through. My spirit in them will recognize you and will come to your defense.

12. My pawns, My first lineup must go forth into their positions to begin and continue their attack... for this lets the enemy know there is a voice and there is a force to contend with. This slows him down for now he must spend time to maneuver. Those on the front lines must broadcast the truth and advance so that those behind them, those in powerful positions will be able to move forward to attack, even as the knights, rooks, bishops must wait for those on the front to move forward to secure positions and be what I have called each to be in this great battle for the world.

13. Always remember that it is I your king, the Son of God who is behind you, that you are obeying Me in this, and that with Me is the greatest power in the universe, that will empower you, provide for you, and open doors that no enemy could close. And know, this is the most serious war ever for it is for the eternal souls of all the world that you fight for.

14. As Satan goes to win the whole board of the world, I will use you to reach each soul that opens their heart, for I came to save that which is lost... and although the enemy of your souls and his pawns will gloat and think they have won, I will pull the rug out from under them and destroy them... and then shall the world be free of the curse.

15. Quit you like men and be strong. Look not nor fear for you are soldiers called to war, called by Me as special troops to do a job that only you can do for you have stood the test and gone through the bootcamp of My purging and are trained for this job of reaching the world and saving the souls in need.

16. Do not fear the lashing out of Satan and his pawns on earth who will panic as they are exposed but rather run the sword through them for they will lose heart, be in confusion, making many mistakes... and their mistakes will awaken the world... and this is how I will shake many out of their lethargy and sleep...

17. I will shock the world out of slumber so that Mine will see the war around them that is about to devour them, and fight, make a stand, and get out of the clutches of the beast and it's fangs, poisons and spiritual death. I will open the eyes of My faithful fighters to see beyond the veil of the physical and see the spiritual war around you. This will cause you to be desperate and pray with all your soul.

18. If you continue to be faithful, I will be faithful to increase the power and anointing so that you will shine brightly for the world to see... and will use you as one of the signs of the End, for that must be. I must give My children and people bright signs so they know the time is near and to put off their own ways and take hold of Mine. Thus you make the way on the board clear paving the way for ME the real King, to come... for only when the gospel of this kingdom is preached in all the world, will the end come and will I return.

4/2023. (prophecies received this month on Easter)

19. See how I have fulfilled My words given and have fulfilled them in you. Let this be to your strength of heart for how you persevered during the hard times to be here at the most important time.

For I love them that love Me, who desire to please Me and give to others. There is nothing that I will withhold from you who go to battle for both My banner and for souls, for I have need of you, and have prepared and trained you for this day.

20. Fear not this enemy even as your brethren My own disciples stood forth boldly proclaiming My word and truth despite their threats. For what was there motivation but My love burning in their soul to live for Me and for those in need of Me.

21. For your words go out like beams of light that activate My children to come alive, be strengthened, and to act, to be and fight. For by their fruits you shall know them; does the fruit of their words draw people closer to Me and cause others to bear fruit...

22. Seal your heart in Me that your words that go out shall burst with My fire that shall create strength, comfort and a fighting spirit in those who hear. Even as I empowered 23. Moses and other prophets of Mine, so will I empower greatly your who stand for Me and My people. It will not be you, but it will be Me in you, so worry not. For as you come to the precipice the fighting spirit of desperation kicks in, as you call on Me, and I will hearken and send My angels to protect, to supply, heal, and do the miracles needed.

24. Your job is to build a store of faith in your heart, storing the word in you so that when you need it, strength will be there. Fill your 'bank account' of Word and Faith, by diligent absorption of My words.

25. As the changes fall around you like leaves of the tree of end time prophecy, you will know exactly where you are, and this will cause faith to be born, faith of those who understand. You will be as those who stand on a ship looking at the storm approaching with faith and undaunted strength, for I will be in you. So build your faith daily that your' lamp' burn brightly, full of the oil of the spirit.

Then dawns the New Day that I have promised, of real peace on earth.

