

COMFORT

In times of sorrow and pain

1. Life has its times of good and bad, happiness and sadness, prosperity and loss. When tragedies, heart breaks and heartaches come, when we lose a loved one, lose our income, become sick, or experience war and natural disasters, some people go under, while others are able to continue on or even rise above it all.

2. No words seem to be adequate at these times, and the best thing is to have someone's help to be there for us when we get hit with a disaster. A real friend, or physical help can save the day, help relieve the desperation and get us through that hard time. These days many are experiencing loss more often and some people several calamities at the same time. It is in times like this when a friend is so precious.

3. But what if there is no one and we are alone... and the pain in heart is unbearable? There are many people who do not make it and feel it's better to end it all rather than endure life in that condition.

4. Most people need a friend to help them through those times of crushing... BUT what if there is no friend available, what can we do then. It's often during times of trouble that Jesus reveals Himself to us if we can turn to Him.

5. Calling on the name of Jesus, reading His Word, and even thanking Him for His sacrifice for us, can and will alleviate any pain, heartbreak, loss of loved ones, and times of crushing. Jesus loves you and wants you to find peace. God made us and He does not want us to go down defeated in sorrow.

6. The following words received from Jesus in prophecy may be just what is needed to get you or a loved one through a rough time. When there is no one else to talk to, to be with, that is an opportunity for us to find God, and find His relief from the pain.

Message inspired of Jesus

7. During this time no words said could alleviate the pain you are feeling, so I will just hold out 'My hand' to you and release the Holy Spirit to comfort you. That is the best I can do for the answer to being free of the pain lies in you. You will have to make the effort to reach out your soul to Me for I am limited by your choices.

8. As you call on Me, THEN I am released to you in every way. The comforting blanket of the Holy Spirit will fall on you to give you surcease from this horrible pain you feel. I will wrap the arms of My Spirit around you and hold you.

9. You might think there is no remedy, there is no answer, there is no way out of this deep valley of darkness of sorrow, but I already see you in the future and know the victory that is coming to you, and THAT is a beautiful thing to see... you standing in victory, smiling.

10. I have given you the majesty of choice. All you have to do is reach out to Me and I will feel it and will release My loving power that will be the greatest pain relief you ever experienced, but it is up to you. I cannot do it all, it must be your choice and you asking for it. I know it is hard, but if you give it a try, you will find an amazing peace inside.

11. I was hated, rejected and killed by the people I came to help. In the hours before My death, I cried out to My Father. Although He did not deliver me from the cross as I had to go through with the agony, yet He gave Me great grace and an inner strength, that this was going to be the greatest victory for humanity, ever. My going through with it, released the key for every person to find the strength they need in times of trial.

12. Reaching out to Me with your soul, calling on Me with your heart, will result in a great victory not only for you but for many others who will also pass through the valley of suffering. I'm entrusting you with this experience because I know you can take it... and in turn will be able to comfort others.

13. You will rise above these ashes with a greater faith and understanding that will give you great victory, the victory of overcoming this world and the flesh. You will gain the inner strength of a faith of steel.

14. Take My hand, let Me hold you and bring you through this trial. I don't want you to drown in sorrow. I want you to win this battle so you can know

Me in a greater way, and be a rock of strength... for real strength comes out of weakness.

15. True fighters are not those who win every battle or who triumph in their own strength, but those who go through great trials and win by holding on to Me. That is the real medal of honor that results in a greater faith, and like Job, despite great trial, you never gave up and was given double of what you lost.

Come unto Me, all you that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest.

Though I walk through the valley of death I will fear no evil, for You are with me, Your rod and staff comfort me.

Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Lord is my light and salvation whom shall I fear. The Lord is the strength of my life of whom shall I be afraid.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in time of trouble.

I called on the Lord and He heard me and answered me.

Call unto Me and I WILL answer you and show you great and mighty things which you know not of.

Message

I will be there for you, give you peace of mind and strength of heart, if you are willing to fight, to call on Me, take My answer, and thank Me for all that you are going to receive from this loss... for all things do work together for good to those who love the Lord and are called to My purpose.

And having done all, Stand
